

The Top Three Family Vacation Spots

Family vacations always cause a stir upon its mere mention. This is because every family member is dying to go on that much needed break. There are several vacation options that a family can choose from but there are just a few of them which have gained a place in the top family vacation spots. Some of these places are mentioned below with the corresponding reasons why families love spending their vacation there.

Topping the list is, you guessed it right, Hawaii. A recent poll showed that Hawaii is the top destination for families to go on vacation. The reason for this is obvious. Hawaii is the island paradise that most mainlanders have always dreamed of. And with every chance they can get, they will surely grab the opportunity to bask in the sun and play in the sand without spending so much. The island is even perfect even with children around. In short, Hawaii has everything to offer to the family that deserves the time off.

There is really something relaxing about the beach because coming a close second are the beaches and cruises of the Caribbean and Mexico. Those who are looking for somewhere nearer but still desire to feel the warmth of the sun and the smell of the sea prefer the Caribbean and Mexico over Hawaii. But this preference is not enough to topple the latter from it being the top family vacation spot.

The third on the list made it to the top three for one thing - children! As if it would surprise you, Disney vacation packages are very popular for families with children because it gives enjoyment to the little ones while providing leisure for the adults. Going on a Disney vacation is like hitting two birds with one stone.

These are the top family vacation spots that you opt to visit when planning to have your family vacation. Bon Voyage!
