

Couples Only Florida Vacation

You may be planning this to rekindle the passion in your 10 year old marriage, you may be eyeing this option as your honeymoon with your new honey or you may be in for this hoping to start something with a special someone. Whatever your goal may be, a couples only Florida vacation is perfect way to fire up the romantic bones of both you and your partner.

If you are planning to book a couples-only trip for you and your beau, then book a romantic getaway in Palm Beach. This place is dotted with romantic seaside cottages or you can reserve a suite in the Palm Beach Hotel. This place is perfect for couples as it offers a wide array of activities that you and your significant other can do. You can check out the amusement parks (like Uncle Bernie's), trek the Pahoee State Park, visit the Museum of Contemporary Art, see the animals at the Palm Beach Zoo at Dreher Park or tee off in Palm Beach National Golf Course.

Another great place to be in Florida for romance is the lesser famous Alligator Point. Since it is not as popular as Miami or Key West, there are relatively lesser people and more privacy for you and your beloved. The beaches are always quiet so you can jog or walk barefoot while you reminisce the good old days together.

If you are still undecided, better call your travel agent or check out the different travel sites on Florida as they will surely have information on couples only Florida vacation.
